Please keep form to no more than three pages, using 11-point font. This narrative is a starting point for the Devasthali Family Foundation Fund with the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico to determine eligibility and competitiveness, so please do not try to include everything about the project—only the essentials. More information may be requested if the project is competitive.

Applicant Organization:

Describe your organization. (What is your mission? Highlight two or three key facts and accomplishments that best define you.)

What need does your project address? (Document the need.)

---

What do you propose to do about it? (What will your project accomplish? How will the Devasthali Family Foundation Fund goals be reached as a result of your project? How does the project build on what you already do? Be concrete.)

How will you do it? (What are the specific activities to be supported? How long will they take? Does the project involve community volunteers or collaboration with other groups? Describe.)

---

Who is responsible for your project? (Provide name, title and the role that each will play in the project.)

---

How will you measure results? (What will you measure to help you understand whether you are making progress or have succeeded? How will you know whether you need to adjust the program to better meet the need? Outline your evaluation plan.)

How much will the project cost? (What is the total project cost? Include a description of any additional funding that may be used for the project. Be sure to attach a detailed line item budget and budget narrative for your project/program.)

---

Conclusion (Why do you think this project fits the objectives of the Devasthali Family Foundation Fund? Why does it matter to our community?)
